

The Desert Quail Tolerers

Chapter #99204 of the Society of Decorative Painters

SEPTEMBER PROJECT
Fall Scarecrow Paint Can
Tuesday, September 26, 2017

RSVP No later than Monday, September 18, 2017

Our very own DQT President, Janet Mitchell, will teach our project this month! Janet is a talented and experienced artist who started painting 32 years ago as a way to have time to herself when her kids were young. She is a founding member of DQT and was our first president! Janet's preferred medium is acrylics but she has dabbled in water colors and tried oils a few times. In addition to being a member of DQT, she is also a member of Gypsy Tolerers, Sugar Pine, Palms to Pines, Brush Whackers, and Southern California Decorative Artists Chapters. In addition to teaching at local chapters, Janet has taught at two National conventions (Utah and San Diego) as well as the Orange County mini conventions when they were held. She loves to look for unusual surfaces to paint on such as jack-in-the-boxes, vintage coffee pots, trays, and shovels. If it has a big enough surface to paint on, she will paint it! Believe it or not, Janet is actually a shy person especially when she is around people she doesn't know. Surprise! Her favorite things to do are to travel and go to baseball and hockey games!
