PRESIDENTS MESSAGE—Janet Mitchell

Happy May Day, Mother's Day, and the start of summer. I just got back from a wonderful girl's trip to Hawaii. It was relaxing, beautiful and fun times. Trips with hubby's, children, significant others are nice but there is nothing like a 'girl's trip'. It's a time to relax, laff your pants off, and bond with women who you have things in common with like painting -after all who else knows about that secret stash of things you just had to have to paint on but don't want your hubby to know about. Everyone needs to have a girls trip, whether it is to a painting seminar, shopping (my husband calls it 'junking') and lunch, a time to hang with your friends. Desert Quail Tolerers has brought many of us together as friends, cherished friendships that will last a life time and that is an important aspect of the chapter. I'm so thankful for all your friendships and the fun we have.

Well it's almost at that 1/2 way mark of the year. This summer is going to be a busy one May is the Country Fair so sign up with Jane to do a shift demoing there. In June there is the SDP National Convention in San Diego which is a blast (great time for a 'girls' trip). In July Gypsy Tolerers is having its annual Sleep Over in Desert Hot Springs, still classes available, and in August we will be having Lynne Andrews for our Summer Seminar. If you haven't painted with Lynne before now is your chance and it is very inexpensive. We have worked hard to keep the cost 'down' and the fun 'up'. Lynne has a unique way of painting and it is down with mainly an Ultra Round Brush, really it is easy but if it intimidates you then by all means use your favorite brushes. Sign up today by calling or emailing Beth. October brings us our Holiday Boutique which Becky and Rosanne are organizing and it is also our Holiday Raffle which is our fund raiser of the year so when Paula gives you a packet of tickets please sell them -the prizes are beautiful! And then along comes December and our Christmas party. Carol and Joanne are in need of one more person (s) to host a table for this so if interested please give them a call.

And we also have our monthly meetings with great projects. Sign up today with Sue and Diana and they do have a 'pre-pay' option so you don't have to worry about forgetting your money for the project at the meeting. I want to thank Barbara Underwood for teaching that adorable Santa at the April meeting, what a great way to start to get in the holiday spirit -it's never too early for the holidays.

Education: Diana Van Riel

Painting Tip:

- * Plastic coffee stirrers are perfect for stiffing paint.
- * To Create perfectly straight painted lines on a flat wood surface, score lines in the wood using a stylus and a see-through ruler. Load a liner brush with thinned paint and follow the depressions created in the wood by the stylus.
- * Use toothpicks for applying paint to fine details, making tiny dots or applying color in hard to reach areas of your project.
- * To avoid accidentally swiping a sleeve across a freshly painted surface, place your supplies to your painting-hand side. This will eliminate the need to reach across your painting, and everything you need will be within easy reach.
- * If you have a lot of edges or corners of a project to paint, simplify the process by loading up a small sponge with your paint and swiping it down the edge.
- * When in doubt about how certain color or stroke will look on your painting, place a piece of clear acetate over the painting, then apply the stroke or color to the acetate.
- * When bottles of acrylic paints start getting old and have been used frequently, little bits of hardened paint can get inside the bottles. Cut out a small square of pantyhose or nylon, stretch it over the top of the bottle, and replace the cap. It acts as a strainer and you'll get much more mileage out of the bottle.
- * When setting up painting space, keep a bar of ivory soap on top of a paper towel, next to your water container, This is for washing out your brushes as you finish with them.

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE

Did you know you can also sell other items at the boutique besides painted ones? We are happy to make money on any crafted items-so if you sew, carve, make jewelry, well, you get the idea you can include it on your table. It just has to be hand crafted. We love to share our painting items but we all do lots of things. We would love to have you all join us this year and have a table or two. You can also rent a half table to share with someone. It's fun, you make a little money and get to know each other. So think about it-all levels of painting are welcome. You just have to finish the back (paint or stain is fine).

Where-The Community Church at Jess Ranch, 11537 Apple Valley Rd., A.V.

When-Fri., Oct. 21, 9-4 & Sat., Oct. 22, 9-3. Set-Up Thurs., Oct. 20, 4-7

Cost-Members- $35 for the two day, non-members $40 for two days

So paint, paint, paint. It's just as easy to paint two as one so join the fun and start now. Questions call Becky 760-247-2285 or Rosanne 626-379-3771

Desert Quail Tolars

Meeting May 3, 2016 Rosanne Scholey's home

The meeting was called to order by 1st Vice President, Sue Clark, at 6:55 p.m

Programs: Sue Clark and Diana VanRiel - Programs are on track for 2016

Membership: Deb Ramo - 62 current members, 33 signed in at the April Meeting. Suggested putting the podium closer to the ways and Means table to get a more accurate idea of those who attend the meetings.

Secretary: Rosanne Scholey - Minutes were reviewed. Maggie Miller moved to accept minutes as presented, 2nd by Cathy Immel, approved by Board.

Treasurer: Cathy Duke-Immel. Balance as of April 30, 2016 is $7,744.24. A list of outstanding checks was distributed with encouragement to cash the checks. Rosanne Scholey moved to accept the Financial Statement as presented, 2nd by Maggie Miller and accepted by the Board. Marilyn Hinman turned in the completed audit for 2015. All figures for 2015 were good.

Newsletter: Beth Murena absent. Sue Clark asked that all articles be submitted by Friday, May 6, 2016 Ways and Means: Maggie Miller – People who volunteered for May donations are being contacted as a reminder.

Sunshine: Sarah Vogel - absent

Welcome: Dorothy Patton – No new people at the last meeting. The board was encouraged to make contact with at least one person at the meeting, making them feel welcome. A Featured Member was suggested, Dorothy would find out something interesting about a member and spend few minutes making them more familiar to the membership.

Hospitality: Jane Haggard and Carol Whitton – Mexican Food is the theme for May. Carol will pick up tostado shells. Board signed up to bring the basics

Fair: Jane Haggard – Thanks to Marilyn Hinman, Becky Bolding and Rosanne Scholey for helping to check in items on Sunday. A People's Choice Award will be given again this year. We are down 40 items this year over last year. If this number continues to fall we will probably have to give up a dedicated space for Tole. Becky Bolding is in charge of setting up the display next week, after the judging. Jane handed out tickets to those who volunteered to demo during the fair.

Education: Diana VanRiel – Any suggestions for news articles should be directed to Diana

Quail Eggs: Rose Gardner - Absent

Charities: Sue Clark – Assistance League has been selected as the charity for the rest of 2016. It was decided that contribution would be given to Assistance League to be used where they saw the greatest need rather than specifying an area they service. Donations still being accepted for Rescue Mission of personal cleaning supplies. Sue Clark will do a decorated wreath, to be sold at the Christmas Party, proceeds of this raffle will go to the Wounded Warriors.

Website: Carol – Statement of Income and Request for Reimbursement forms have been added to the website.

Summer Seminar: Beth Murena and Janet Mitchell – both absent

Holiday Raffle: Judy Mountjoy, Paula Maldonado, Marilyn Hinman – All pictures will soon be available so a flyer can be made. Two of the items are on display at the Fair and a notice will be placed in front of those items telling people where they can buy tickets. We are not allowed to sell tickets at the Fair.

Holiday Boutique: Becky Bolding – Nothing yet

October Paint Month: Pat De La Pena – Absent. It was reported that help was needed for the reading and painting projects in May.

Christmas Party: Carol Whitton and Joanne Goodsell – A caterer has been found, Reflections. $1762 is the charge for entire event based on 64 attendees. The 8th table now has a mystery hostess(s). Rosanne Scholey moved that members, who are not eligible for a free ticket, be charged $15. Proceeds from the Christmas raffle would be used to offset the Club's costs. 2nd to this motion made by Maggie Miller. Discussion followed and motion was approved by Board.

Awards: Becky Bolding - Nothing Egg Exchange: Debbie Ragains - Nothing

New Business: A suggestion was made that there be a wood auction, with donated wood and patterns. Quail Eggs would be used. More discussion and planning is needed.

Old Business - Nothing

Next Board Meeting – July 5th at Debbie Ragain's

Meeting Adjourned: 7:57
